Redwood Magic — 2014 Registration Information & Form

Wednesday August 13 (arrive 2-4pm) through Sunday August 17 (depart noon)

Share in four days of Reclaiming style spirituality, magic, and community! Join us in the forest at Mendocino Woodlands as we weave a web that crosses the generations.

Redwood Magic is a community retreat, not a festival or a drop-in camp. Please plan to attend the entire event (unless advance arrangements are made).

Visit our webpage for lots more info — www.ReclaimingQuarterly.org/web/redwoodmagic/

Who?

Our camp is open to Reclaiming-friendly families and their invited guests, as well as a few teachers and organizers. Folks new to Reclaiming are welcome. Visit www.Reclaiming.org for information on our tradition.

Where?

Mendocino Woodlands Campsite Three. The camp is set among a mature Redwood/Douglas Fir forest, creating a beautiful, peaceful setting. A small creek runs alongside the camp.

The site is not designated wheelchair accessible but may have accessible features. Contact us for more information.

Food

Cost includes delicious community meals with offerings for vegans, vegetarians, and omnis.

Substances

Redwood Magic is drug- and-alcohol free. Tradition allows moderate use of sugar, caffeine, and nicotine. We honor California's medical laws — please let us know if you have a medical card and/or are bringing prescription medications.

Cost / Deposit / Refund Policy

See registration form for cost. Cost includes A-frame tent-cabins with cots and foam mattresses (or tenting), meals, and camp activities. The only other cost is the camp raffle/silent auction (an optional fundraiser for camp).

Campers bring their own bedding and optional tent. A bring-list will be sent with the camp packet in mid-Summer.

Discount for registration and payment by May 31. Deposit $100 per person (age 5-up) reserves space, and is strictly nonrefundable once accepted to camp via email confirmation.

Balance of payment is refundable through July 31. Visit webpage for our cancellation and refund policy — www.ReclaimingQuarterly.org/web/redwoodmagic/
