

Teens and Young Adults!

Join us for six amazing and transformative days of magic and Earth activism.

Young people who are 13-19 any time this year can attend (under 18 need parent's permission). Older teens and young adults can apply to be part of our Mentoring Path.

We'll do tarot, habitat restoration, spellwork, activism, labyrinth rituals — and learn a lot about our relation to the Earth. Be ready to laugh, work, create, play, sing — maybe all at the same time.

Come together with other young people who care about the world. Folks from a number of communities around the Reclaiming network will be taking part. Group-building and trust exercises will be part of our work, and we hope to create lasting connections.

Info for Parents

Teen Earth Magic is strongly supported by parents, who help with cooking, transportation, and in-camp support.

We want parents to feel free to raise questions and concerns prior to camp, and to help us create the strongest possible experience for our young people.

Organizers are based in several Reclaiming communities, and have been involved in a half-dozen Witchcamps. The first Teen Earth Magic (in 2008) grew out of Teens' Path at California's Witchlets in the Woods family camp.

Teachers have taught or organized with Vermont Witchcamp, Free Activist Witchcamp, Loreley Witchcamp (Western Europe), and Winter Witchcamp, as well as Witchlets, and we have a dream that our camp might seed similar teen retreats in other regions.

Questions from teens and parents are especially welcome.

Tenth Annual Reclaiming Teen Earth Magic

for ages 13-19*

taught in the Reclaiming Tradition designed in cooperation with Starhawk six transformative days of magic and earth activism

Mendocino OR Ukiah CA (TBD)

June 17-22, 2017

* - if you are age 13-19 any time this year — ages
20-25 can apply for our mentors' path

Young Adult Mentoring Path

The Young Adult Mentorship Path is designed for a limited number of older teens and young adults — witches, activists, seekers, shamans, urban homesteaders, and nature-worshippers of all sorts at the cusp of the transition into adulthood.

Here's a chance to build empowerment in community and learn more deeply about ourselves, while contributing to the magic of Teen Earth Magic in a dynamic way.

We'll tap deeply into what each of us has to offer from our hearts — which might be leadership and service, mentoring younger folks, skill-sharing, kitchen-witching, or something unexpected and mysterious — and help create the container of camp.

This is an opportunity to learn ritual creation and group facilitation, to hone community and magical skills, to bond with people facing many of the same joys and challenges, and to find out about ourselves as we head into the world in ever new and more adventuresome ways.

Contact us if you have questions or suggestions! See below for email and phone contacts.

What to Bring to Camp

- Whatever you'd take on a camping trip. Nothing valuable or irreplaceable. Contact us with questions.
- Your belief that you are an amazing, powerful, creative person who belongs at Teen Earth Magic!
- We'll send a list of packing suggestions before camp.

Participants' Agreements

Participants will be asked to agree that they are committed to the values of the camp, and will actively help co-create Teen Earth Magic - an always-evolving camp. Folks over 18 are also asked to read and sign an Ethics Agreement.

Questions or Feedback?

If you have questions, feedback, or support, please contact us! Teen Earth Magic is a community-supported camp, and we welcome feedback, new ideas, etc.

Questions from teens and parents are especially welcome. Your question can help us create a stronger camp!

Teen Earth Magic through the years

Teen Earth Magic began in 2008, when teachers, parents, and campers who had been part of Witchlets in the Woods family camp decided to organize an Earth-based teen retreat.

The first year, twelve teens worked with the legend of Savitri and Satyavan, visited the Yuba River, did rituals and magic, and built group bonds.

In 2009, 24 teens and young adults focused on the life-story of the salmon, native inhabitants of Northern California's rivers and creeks.

2010 again drew two dozen teens and young adults for the Pentacle of the Great Turning, inspired by the work of Joanna Macy.

Recent years have seen 25-30 teens and young-adult mentors follow the Journey of the Bard, the Life of the Butterfly, and Sweet Magic of the Beehive.

If you are 13-19 any time this year, or if you want to apply to be a young adult mentor, you can be part of creating the next chapter in our story — join us at Teen Earth Magic!

How You Can Support Teen Earth Magic

For young people in our community whose hearts are searching for the next step — sharing Teen Earth Magic could be life-changing!

Your tax-deductible contribution can have a major impact on the lives of our young folks, and can make it possible for low-income teens to take part in our camp.

(1) Help sponsor teens from your community.

(2) Donate to Teen Earth Magic! Make an earmarked donation via mail or PayPal — email us to find out how.

Contact us if you have questions or feedback — email teeneearthmagic@gmail.com, or phone (510) 589-0897.

Teen Earth Magic — How It Works

Cost of the Retreat

We want to bring together Reclaiming's teens!

Complete cost of our six-day retreat is just $229-499 sliding scale (you decide where you fit on the scale) with full reg and payment by March 31. $279-499 after April 1.

We offer partial parent work-trade for help with transportation etc, and some partial scholarship assistance. If you need a ride, we ask $20 donation each direction.

How to Sign Up

Fill in the registration form and send it with your $100 deposit or full payment (see reg-form for refund policies) to:

Teen Earth Magic
c/o Reclaiming
PO Box 14404
San Francisco, CA 94114

Enrollment is limited — sign up now to reserve a space!

Drugs, Alcohol, and Other Substances

Teen Earth Magic is a drug- and alcohol-free event. We also ask teens not to bring personal snacks except for traveling. Let us know in advance if you will be bringing medications and/or special-needs food.

Accommodations

We sleep in tents and on the floor, so sleep-mats are needed. Toilet and shower are indoor and shared by all genders. Food is prepared in the indoor camp kitchen and served in the dining hall.

There is not reliable cellphone reception at the camp. The camp has an emergency landline phone.

Physical Needs

Most of camp is rustic dirt paths, not wheelchair accessible. People with walking sticks and/or crutches might manage. We will do our best to support your needs.

Transportation

For folks coming from outside Northern California, we will arrange your ride from the San Francisco Bay Area. Others — we will try to help, for $20 each direction. Please offer rides if possible! Parents — contact us about work-trade in exchange for helping with transportation.

Teen Earth Magic • June 17-22, 2017 • Mariposa Institute • Ukiah CA

Hi teens and parents,

2017 is the 10th annual Teen Earth Magic – that’s ten years for North America’s oldest teen magic camp!

We’re writing with information about our 2017 camp, and to invite young folks age 13-19 any time this year to join us. Young people age 20-25 can apply to be part of our mentors program.

Teen Earth Magic is a unique blend of magic, laughter, music, ritual, games – and a lot more.

We focus on building strong connections among the teens, and developing group skills are part of our magic.

This year’s camp will be held at a new site – the Mariposa Institute near Ukiah. You can google them to see photos of the rustic but gorgeous retreat space.

If you have questions about the new site drop us a line.

Teens – join us to co-create the 10th annual Teen Earth Magic!

Every year we welcome new teens into our circle – if you have questions about our camp, please ask!

Teachers – Lyra, Penske, Fly, Vesper, and George plan to be back. Rachel, Jacin, and Ida plan to join us. And there’s a rumor Riyana and/or Jason might be back!

Register soon – camp will fill up early this year. Earlybird rates good through March 31 – see below for details. Send registration form and/or email us soon so we can save a space for you at Teen Earth Magic.

Cost – Earlybird $229-499 sliding scale through March 31. After April 1, $279-499. The new site will be significantly more expensive than our old site – please place yourself generously on the sliding scale to help keep our camp accessible to everyone.

Donations above the minimum are tax-deductible via Reclaiming, a 501c3 nonprofit. Contact us with questions.

We can offer a couple of partial work-trades in return for parents helping with cooking and/or transportation, and some partial scholarship assistance is available.

Diet/medical issues – please indicate on your reg form if you have any dietary needs/allergies, or will be taking any medications during camp. It is important that we know about prescriptions medications and have back-up at camp.

Access issues – the new site is on rolling hills. Paths are fairly level. Sleeping space is mixed – some on bunks, some in tents, some on the floor. Let us know if you or your teen have any access needs or questions.

Waiver – we need a signed liability waiver from a parent for each teen. We'll send it via email once you register. Contact me if you have questions about the waiver or about any camp policies.

Parents at camp – we welcome parents to spend a couple of days with us to help create TEM. We welcome help with set-up, kitchen, trips to town, etc – plus you'll have time to relax and enjoy the woods. If possible, please make a $30/night donation to offset site/food costs for our nonprofit camp.

Contact for TEM — George, (510) 589-0897, <teearthmagic@gmail.com>

Contact us if you have questions or ideas. Your support and input help create the strongest camp for our teens!

– George Franklin for the Teen Earth Magic team
